For these purposes, the appropriate higher rate shall be the increment base hourly wage rate in the higher rated job classification which is closest to but higher than the increment base hourly wage rate the Employee was receiving in the applicable lower rated job classification at the time of the temporary upgrade.

 - (i) Employees who were members of the Union on or before the date of certification of the Union by the Labour Relations Board of British Columbia shall remain members of the Union as a condition of employment.
 - (ii) Employees who were not members of the Union prior to the date of certification of the Union by the Labour Relations Board of British Columbia may become members of the Union if they want to, but they shall not be required to do so. The Union shall provide the Employer with a minimum of thirty (30) consecutive calendar days written notice in advance of the implementation date of any change in deductions pursuant to this Article.
- (e) Disclaimer/Indemnity

The Employer shall have no financial responsibility for the fees or dues of any Employee, unless the Employer owes an Employee sufficient unpaid wages to deduct and remit the fees and dues assigned. The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any claims, demands, actions, or charges brought against the Employer as a result of the application of this Article 5.

5.04 Remittance of Deductions

The provisions of this Clause 6.01(a) shall not preclude the Union from designating one (1) or more alternate Shop Steward(s), providing that at any given time there is only one (1) active Shop Steward for the purposes of this Agreement.
- (b) The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the name(s) of the person(s) authorized to represent the Union for the purposes of this Agreement and shall promptly notify the Employer in writing of any changes in these name(s). Until such written notification is in each case received by the Employer, the Employer shall not be obliged to acknowledge any individual's authority to represent the Union.

6.02 Time Off Work for Union Business

- (a) It is agreed that time off work for any Shop Steward or any other Union representative(s) and/or any Employee(s) from within the bargaining unit to attend any meeting(s) with any representative(s) of management with respect to matters covered by this Agreement shall be deemed to be time worked and paid accordingly by the Employer, subject to the following conditions:
- (i) All such paid time off work for any Shop Steward or any other Union representative(s) and/or any Employee(s) from within the bargaining unit must be approved in advance and scheduled by the Library Director, or delegate.

- (b) Except for attending meetings with management with respect to matters covered by this Agreement or as otherwise expressly provided by this Agreement, the Shop Steward and any other Union representatives and Employees from within the bargaining unit shall all conduct Union business outside their working hours, exclusive of rest and meal breaks, and under no circumstances shall the Employer's operations be disrupted or the Employer incur any cost.
- (c) The Employer agrees to grant leave without pay and without loss of seniority for the purposes of collective bargaining. The Employer shall continue to pay the Employee his/her regular rate while on such leave and will invoice the Union for that amount.

6.03 Leave of Absence for Union Business

(a) Union Leave – Short Term

The Employer may grant a leave of absence without pay to no more than one (1) Employee at any one (1) time to attend Union functions. The Employer shall continue to pay the Employee his/her regular straight-time hourly wage rate while on such leave and will invoice the Union for that amount.

Such leave will only be granted if the Employer receives at least fourteen (14) consecutive calendar days advance notification in writing from the Union requesting the leave. The total of such leave of absence in any calendar year shall not exceed eighty (80) missed straight time hours of work. For the purposes of the application of this Clause 6.03(a), the Employer specifically reserves the overriding right at all times to retain a workforce that in the opinion of the Employer has the present qualifications, skills and ability to perform the available and projected work, as determined by the Employer. Otherwise, leave under this Clause 6.03(a) will not be unreasonably denied by the Employer.

(b) Union Leave - Extended

- (i) An Employee who is acting as a full-time officer or representative of the Union or who is hired, elected or appointed to a position representing the Union beyond the scope of the Employer's operations shall be granted an unpaid leave of absence to perform his or her duties, with the time involved considered as service, for seniority purposes only, with the Employer. Only one (1) bargaining unit employee shall have the right to such unpaid leave of absence at any one (1) time.
- (ii) An Employee on leave pursuant to this Clause 6.03(b) may elect to continue some or all of the benefit plan coverage provided by this Agreement, subject to his or her eligibility, in which case such Employee shall be responsible for paying the Employer in advance on a monthly basis for the full cost of such continued coverage, unless the Union makes such advance monthly payments on behalf of the Employee.
- (iii) On conclusion of a leave of absence under this Clause 6.03(b) the Employee shall be returned by the Employer to his or her former job classification or to a comparable position. The Employee must provide the Employer with at least thirty (30) consecutive calendar days advance notification in writing confirming the date the Employee will be returning to work upon the conclusion of such leave.

6.04 Union Access to Employees

The Employer agrees that access to its premises shall be allowed to an authorized representative of the Union from outside of the bargaining unit for the purpose of administering this Agreement on the understanding that the Employer's operations will not be disrupted and upon at least twenty-four (24) hours advance notice, in which case such permission shall not be unreasonably denied.

6.05 Union Notice Board

The Employer shall provide one (1) bulletin board for use by the Union to post notices of Union meetings and/or social events. No such notice shall contain any content which is immoral, illegal or discriminatory in nature.

6.06 Limitations on Union Activities

When such external representative of the Union is present another representative of the Employer, with voice but no vote, shall also have the right to attend to ensure equal representation on the Committee.

8.02 Responsibilities of the Committee

- (a) The Committee shall be empowered to discuss and make non-binding recommendations on matters referred to it by mutual agreement of the Parties.
- (b) Subjects discussed by the Committee shall not include any matter being processed under the grievance or arbitration procedures contained in this Agreement, or any current collective bargaining matter, unless mutually agreed otherwise by the Parties.

8.03 Committee Meetings

- (a) The Committee shall meet as necessary but not more than four (4) times in each calendar year except that additional meetings can be convened by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. Committee meetings will be held at the request of either Party upon submission of an agenda of topics to be discussed. No meeting of the Committee shall exceed two (2) hours in length, unless extended on a case by case basis by unanimous agreement between the Employer and the Union representatives who are in attendance.
- (b) Any issues regarding Occupational Health & Safety shall be dealt with through the Labour-Management Committee.
- (c) Scheduling of Committee meetings and paid time off work for Union representatives from within the bargaining unit to attend shall be governed by Clause 6.02 of this Agreement.

8.04 Jurisdiction of Committee

Both Parties have the right to refer any matter or proposal discussed at the Labour-Management Committee meeting to their respective principals for further direction, advice or ratification.

Except as expressly provided otherwise by this Agreement, Temporary Employees shall be treated in all respects under this Agreement on the same basis as Regular Employees.

12.04 Probation Period

The probation period for each Temporary Employee shall be governed by Article 15 and all other applicable provisions of the Agreement. However, it is agreed that successful completion of the probation period by any Temporary Employee shall not be cause for any change in the employment status of that person to Regular Employee status.

A Temporary Employee who has a break in service, i.e. performs no work within the bargaining unit, for a continuous period that exceeds ninety one (91) consecutive calendar days shall lose all seniority and shall be deemed to be terminated such that he or she shall no longer be considered to be an Employee covered by this Agreement. - (a) “Grievance” means:
 - (i) differences between the Parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation, or any alleged violation of a provision of this Agreement, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration, or;
 - (ii) the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an Employee bound by this Agreement.
- (b) The procedure for resolving a grievance shall be the grievance procedure in this Article.

25.02 Step 1

The Employee involved shall first take up the grievance with the Library Director, or duly authorized delegate, within fourteen (14) calendar days of when the grievance was known or ought to have been known. The Employee may be accompanied by a Shop Steward.

25.03 Step 2

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the matter shall be reduced to writing by the Union and submitted to the Library Director, or duly authorized delegate, within twenty-one (21) calendar days following the decision rendered at Step 1. The grievor, along with a Shop Steward, shall meet with the Library Director, and/or duly authorized delegate(s), to attempt to settle the matter.

Failing settlement within thirty (30) consecutive calendar days of receipt of the grievance at this step, either Party may refer the matter to arbitration as provided in Article 26 [Arbitration].

25.04 Union and Employer Grievance

In the event a grievance is initiated by the Employer or the Union, the initiating Party shall notify the other Party, in writing, of the nature of the grievance and such notice shall be given within thirty (30) days of when the grievance was known or ought to have been known, unless the Parties agree to an extension of time. All dismissal grievances that are to proceed to Arbitration will be dealt with expeditiously.

25.06 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been filed in writing at Step 2, the Employer's representatives will not enter into discussion or negotiation with the aggrieved Employee without the consent of the Union. In the event that, either before or after a grievance is initiated under this Agreement, an Employee endeavours to pursue the same or similar matter through a complaint under the Human Rights Code of British Columbia, further processing of the grievance under this Agreement shall, upon request by the Employer, be held in abeyance pending the outcome of the complaint under the Human Rights Code.

25.07 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, an Arbitrator shall have the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to the equitable principles and the justice of the case.

25.08 Extension of Time Limits

The time limits set forth in this Article or Article 26 [Arbitration] may be extended by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.

They do NOT constitute job descriptions.

(2) "HOURS ACTUALLY WORKED" DEFINED

For the purposes of this Appendix "A", "hours actually worked" shall be defined to mean and include all worked hours paid for at straight-time or overtime hourly rates for work actually performed, including paid rest periods, but excluding meal periods, and any other "deemed worked" time, whether paid or unpaid under the Collective Agreement, within the applicable job classification.

- (b) If the minimum wage is reduced:
 - (i) Employees who are presently earning an adjusted rate will remain at such a rate until the rates in the Collective Agreement exceed the adjusted rate.
 - (ii) New employees working in that classification will have their rate adjusted to ensure that they receive a rate of pay that is no less than $.30 above the minimum wage or no less than the rates provided by the Collective Agreement, whichever is greater.
- (c) *denotes present minimum wage of $13.85 + $.30.

RE: REDUCTION IN HOURS

Whereas the Parties agree that for the purposes of this Agreement a reduction in hours does not constitute a layoff, it is agreed that a reduction in hours under the following circumstances will generate the following rights:

In the event an Employee's hours are reduced by an amount equal to 25% or an amount greater than 25% of the Employee's average hours in a quarterly period, such Employee shall have the right to bump a less senior employee within his/her classification who is scheduled for a greater number of hours. In the exercise of this option, it is understood that the Employee who opts to bump the junior Employee must take the junior Employee's entire rotation as opposed to selecting particular shifts or hours.

RE: USE OF TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES

With respect to the above cited subject matter, the Employer and the Union, hereinafter referred to as the "Parties", do hereby expressly and mutually agree as follows:

- (1) Before exercising its rights under Clause 12.01(a) of the Collective Agreement to use Temporary Employee(s) within a given job classification, the Employer shall first endeavour to satisfy its personnel requirements by scheduling or utilization of Regular Employee(s) who hold the job title of that classification, subject to the remaining provisions of this Letter of Understanding. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and for greater clarity and certainty, any of said Regular Employee(s) must currently possess the qualifications, skill and ability to perform the available work within the given job classification and be readily available to undertake the assignment.
- (2) The scheduling or utilization of the eligible Regular Employee(s) referred to in Paragraph (1) above, when done, shall be undertaken by the Employer in an attempt to maximize individual hours of work, but only on a straight-time basis. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and for greater clarity and certainty, the Parties specifically agree that the provisions of this Letter Of Understanding shall not apply with respect to allocation of overtime and shall not in any manner oblige the Employer to incur any overtime costs. - (3) The scheduling or utilization of the eligible Regular Employee(s) referred to in Paragraph (1) above, when done, shall be undertaken by the Employer in accordance with its prevailing scheduling rights.
- (4) The Parties concur that concern(s) about the allocation of hours of work under this Letter Of Understanding shall be addressed by the Labour Management Committee in accordance with the provisions of Article 8 of the Collective Agreement.
- (5) Nothing contained in this Letter Of Understanding shall be construed or applied as diminishing in any way the Employer's rights to use Temporary Employees under Clause 12.01(b) of the Collective Agreement, that is, in relation to grant funding.

- (6) Nothing contained in this Letter Of Understanding shall be construed or applied as diminishing in any way the Employer's rights under Clause 4.03 of the Collective Agreement, that is, with respect to having certain management personnel or other persons perform bargaining unit work under certain circumstances.
- (7) This Letter Of Understanding may be changed at any time by the written mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.
